

Boat Tours/yacht charter in Argentario

Admire the sea from a privileged point

Sea enthusiasts will be able to admire some of the most beautiful stretches of coast in Tuscany, starting from Porto Santo Stefano, to explore the small coves often reachable only by boat, which offers truly unique shades of blue and exciting sunsets over the Tyrrhenian Sea.

The tours we offer last the whole day and you can agree with the skipper on the itinerary that most fascinates you: it will be possible to reach the Island of Giglio (where you can also stop on land) or the Island of Giannutri, or if you prefer, stay in Argentario and go around the promontory. You can reach unique places in the world and live a dream experience!

PRICE: on request

Michelin-Starred Chef Marco Lagrimino

Tailor-Made Michelin-Starred Culinary Services

Chef at Home

A private fine dining experience designed around you. Before the event, we'll schedule a consultation to understand your tastes, dietary needs, and the occasion. Based on this, personalised menu options will be proposed, with one menu selected for the group (children excluded).

Marco will personally shop for fresh, high-quality ingredients from local producers. On the day, he'll arrive in advance to handle everything: table setting, dish preparation, full service, and final kitchen cleanup. A waiter can be added upon request, at an extra cost.

Italian Cooking Classes

Discover the heart of Italian cuisine through hands-on, authentic, and convivial lessons. From handmade pasta to traditional desserts, you'll cook with fresh ingredients and classic techniques, always accompanied by a good glass of wine.

Perfect for curious beginners and food lovers alike, the experience includes:
*Practical cooking lesson - Fresh ingredients-
All equipment provided - Take-home recipe booklet - Shared lunch or dinner*
